

Department of Music

About the department

The internationally-renowned Department of Music is one of the largest and most distinguished in the United Kingdom, and in the 2008 government-led Research Assessment Exercise, the department was rated top in the country. The courses listed below are available to all Study Abroad, International Exchange and Erasmus Students, provided that sufficient prior knowledge and experience of the subject can be shown where required. The Music Department reserves the right to review each application to assess the suitability of the applicant and his/her chosen course(s).

Entry requirements

Level One Courses:

There are no formal pre-requisites, but a background in music and music theory is seen as very beneficial to students.

Level Two Courses:

A solid foundation in the rudiments of Western music (an ability to read music fluently, identify key signatures, rhythms, etc.) plus an understanding of Western harmony (an ability to write and/or identify harmonic progressions: i.e. being able to harmonise a Bach chorale) is required for Intermediate courses, as well as completion of any first year courses at undergraduate level in music theory.

Level Three Courses:

Advanced knowledge and extensive experience in the subject area and at least two years of experience is expected. Please note that these are advanced courses, typically equal to senior year/graduate level work in the USA.

Performance Courses:

Subject to an audition that will take place once you arrive on campus. If you have chosen a performance course, be prepared for a 10 minute audition, but also have a back-up course choice.

The information contained in the course outlines on the following pages is correct at the time of publication but may be subject to change as part of our policy of continuous improvement and development.

Level One:

Course code	Course name/pre-requisites	½ or 1 unit	Start date	Course description/pre-requisites
MU1110	Theory & Analysis	½ unit	Term 2 (January 2019)	The course addresses the contrapuntal, melodic, harmonic and formal elements of tonal music. Students are introduced to analytical concepts and then practice deploying them, through listening, score study and the completion of practical exercises.
MU1111	Practical Musicianship	½ unit	Term 1 (September 2018)	Through practical exercises that focus on aural perception and awareness, and on responding to heard music in practical ways (including singing and playing), students train themselves to hear and analyse the musical parameters of metre, rhythm, pitch, timbre, dynamics, expression and structure.
MU1112	Creative Composition Techniques	½ unit	Terms 1 & 2 (September 2018)	The course may include the study of soundworlds and scale formations, the vertical dimension (chords & simultaneities), the horizontal dimension (melody & voice leading), developments in rhythm, harmonic vocabulary and tonalities, form in contemporary composition, acoustic timbre and texture.
MU1113	Practical Composition Skills	½ unit	Terms 1 & 2 (September 2018)	The course may include the study of writing for solo instrument or voice with accompaniment, writing for small chamber ensemble, introduction to media and film music or studio techniques.
MU1114	Very Short History of Music	½ unit	Term 1 (September 2018)	The course will offer students a conceptual map of musical styles, composers and practices by introducing them to a wide chronological range of repertoires, from early music to music of the 20th century. It will emphasise questions of change, interaction and transmission through the study of forms and repertoires in their historical context.
MU1115	Introduction to Historical Musicology	½ unit	Term 2 (January 2019)	This course introduces students to the different kinds of historical question that we can ask about music, and interrogates some of the terminology and categories frequently used in the secondary literature (e.g. canonisation, reception, tradition, nationalism, exoticism, the work concept).
